Chi Heng Hong Kong Mooncake Charity Sale

With the joyous Mid-Autumn Festival fast approaching, Chi Heng Hong Kong launched its annual Mooncake Charity Sale in July and August with the support of Maxim's Caterers Limited. Supporters extended their love to the underprivileged while making the Festival more meaningful for themselves and their families. This year's charity sale presented 4 selections of Maxim's Mooncakes and Chi Heng's charity gift cards. All net proceeds will go to Chi Heng's education sponsorship program.

Chi Heng student representatives attend SJYC by UWC

From 25th July to 1st August, a Chi Heng sponsored student representative went to the Lee Po Chun World United College of Hong Kong for the six-day SJYC themed "Emotional Intelligence and Morality". The student shared ideas with other representatives from all over the world on cultural communication. This is the first time for a Chi Heng student to stand on an international platform of communication. In the future, we believe Chi Heng students will keep challenging themselves to participate in bigger and bigger events.

Chi Heng launch summer holiday activities for primary and middle school students in Central China

From 21st July to 18th Aug, Chi Heng's university students working group of Central China launched three themed activities for different aged primary and middle school students, namely on HIV knowledge understanding, story sharing, team building exercises and quality body training. The organizers passed on scientific knowledge to the students and helped them form a positive attitude towards life.

Chi Heng Hong Kong participate in Mid-Autumn Festival gift pop-up store

Chi Heng Hong Kong was invited by Prime Gift to set up a booth at the Mid-Autumn Festival gift pop-up store on 18th and 19th August at Jones Lang LaSalle's offices in Quarry Bay and Admiralty, Hong Kong. Chi Heng's eco-bags, compact mirrors manufactured by Starfish Workshops, and Chi Heng's gift cards were displayed while Chi Heng's volunteers helped to promote Chi Heng's work and mission.

The second activity of Heroes In Mirror of Chi Heng

From 3rd - 8th August, Chi Heng Central China held the second activity of Heroes In Mirror. 68 sponsored students and 20 volunteers attended the activity. Volunteer teachers helped students make their own hero cards and helped them better recognize them. The activities also helped the students relax, eased their pain, and promoted their psychological health.

Standard Chartered Bank Beijing Branch Charity Bazaar

From 25th - 29th August, Chi Heng Beijing office worked together with Standard Chartered Bank (SCB) Beijing Branch and held a charity bazaar lasting for 5 days. The Chi Heng social enterprise products displayed were well received by the SCB staff. An auction featuring 'AIDS orphan paintings' was also held and attracted many colleagues to compete for the works. 16 paintings were auctioned successfully and all the proceeds raised through this joint-work could support 60 students to finish one school year's study.

Chi Heng Central China holds Summer Camp for Graduates

From 18th - 20th August, Chi Heng Central China held a summer camp for 27 graduates from middle and high schools. 12 college students heading for Guilin for the Closing Meeting of the summer campaign the next day were also present. Adventurous and interesting activities such as watching a movie, mountain climbing (the Jinding Mountain), experiencing rafting and the live CS, helped relax the graduates from their industrious schoolwork and college students from their hard home visiting work. Before the closing of the camp, the students were also guided to make plans for their new school year.

2014 Chi Heng College Students Summer Work Closing Meeting

The Chi Heng college students summer campaign, which lasted a whole month, ended successfully on 20th August. With 152 college student participants, the campaign managed to accomplish 5,718 home visits, as well as setting up 20 interest classes. 1,092 primary and middle school students benefited from these interest classes, which covered provinces of Henan, Anhui, Yunnan, Guangxi, Guangdong and Shandong. The Closing Meeting was held in Guilin, in which college students shared their accomplishments. The meeting was a comprehensive summary for the 2014 summer campaign, and at the same time officially opened the work for the next school year.

'Go · Journey of Love' Public Welfare Launching Ceremony

'Go · Journey of Love' launching ceremony, co-hosted by Go Travel, World Magazine and Chi Heng Foundation, kicked off on 30th August. The entertainment star Mr. HU Jun attended the ceremony and interacted with three Chi Heng college students. The aim of this event is to let more people learn about the AIDS-orphan study support work conducted by Chi Heng, and to help people have a direct perception of AIDS-orphans. All the proceeds obtained from selling the travelling pillow newly released by Go Travel would be donated to Chi Heng, and be used as tuition in supporting these students.

From 29th - 31st August, the Central China office of Chi Heng organized 'Bright Moon Shinning' Mid-Autumn activity, in which 16 volunteers from Hong Kong and 30 subsidized primary and middle school students participated. During the 2-day home visiting activities, the volunteers from HK attended the Mid-Autumn Festival performance with local students and carried out home visits to 12 families the next day. They brought not only life supplies but also festive blessings to these families.

12th and 13th Guangzhou summer camp gathering in central area

From 4th - 7th August, the 12th and 13th Guangzhou summer camp members gathered in one of Chi Heng's project locations in Central China. Though parted for a whole year, the members were still closely bonded. After the summer camp, the students saw positive changes in themselves. They were deeply motivated by the companies and places they visited to pursue their dreams, and wrote to the companies and volunteers to express their thanks. They will create a brighter future to contribute to society and pass on the kindness in helping others.

Chi Heng Southwest Office Organizes Interest Classes

From 28th July to 16th August, eight Chi Heng college students from the southwest conducted 5 sessions of summer interest classes targeting 2 rural areas. These classes raised students' strong interest in minority cultures and helped them get to know each other, help each other and become good friends. The participation of college students helped realize Chi Heng's concept of 'one for three, and three for nine'.

In August, Chi Heng Yunnan office organized a 20-day summer camp in 2 areas with 20 subsidized students and 7 Chi Heng college students participating. One of the highlights for the camp was that all the activities were planned and carried out by Chi Heng college students. From interest classes to 'hand-in-hand watch and learn', the students had a lot of fun. The live CS night war game improved their team work and cooperation ability. At the end, students also performed singing and dancing they learned from the interest classes.

Chi Heng Southwest Office Organizes Summer Camp

From 4th - 7th August, Chi Heng Yunnan office organized a 4-day mini-summer camp, in which 12 subsidized middle school students and 2 college students participated. They paid a visit to Dehong Teachers College and experienced college life in advance. Members of this summer camp, through a series of activities including sightseeing, watching movies, tea-making, and attending a campfire party with friends from the De' ang minority, had the chance to appreciate the beauty of their own hometown and love from all around.
