

Radiothon on Father's Day – "Children Having Father's Love Are Blessed"

In the morning on Father's Day, June 16th, Chi Heng Canada and Fairchild Radio (FM96.1) co-organized a radiothon program called "Children Having Father's Love Are Blessed". The program was widely supported by Chinese Canadians, and was sponsored by Scotiabank and Deloitte, two well-known enterprises which also sent volunteers to take donation phone calls. Through the airwaves, famous musicians Anthony Lun, Albert Au, Joe Junior, Chi Heng Goodwill Ambassador Cathy Lee, and our Chairperson Chung To called upon the audience to donate and support Chi Heng's work in China, while giving AIDS orphans love and blessing on Father's Day. Evelyn Cheng, the chairperson of the Vancouver Branch of Chi Heng Canada, plans to organize similar programs next year, so that more people can understand Chi Heng's ideals and programs. Special thanks to Ricky Cheung, Herman Cheng, Bertha Lai and the youth team for volunteering to take donation phone calls.

Pizza-making Party

To celebrate Father's Day, Chi Heng Foundation organized "Pizza for Dad, Made by You" pizza making charity parties on June 8th. The venue was sponsored by Pizza Express. Hugo Boss and Oracle invited members from YMCA and Caritas to participate in this joyous event, with more than 50 children joining. The party volunteers helped children create their own personalized pizza for their beloved dad. It was delightful to see the children and their parents enjoying themselves (and of course the pizza!) in such a lovely and warm environment. Chi Heng also introduced its programs to the participants. Proceeds raised from this event will be used to support Chi Heng's projects.

Volunteer Gathering in HK

Chi Heng Foundation well understands that its success goes hand in hand with engagements from volunteers and supporters. Therefore the importance of establishing and maintaining a trusting long-term relationship with them has always been emphasized. On June 9th, volunteers gathered at Pizza Express TST in HK to learn about updates on Chi Heng's work and upcoming activities. We hope that through this event, we can attract new volunteers to help with various work areas in the future.

Jacob Christensen runs at Sundown Marathon

Jacob Christensen works in China and has witnessed the often difficult lives of AIDS affected patients in Kunming, Yunnan. Such firsthand experience inspired him to do something more. On June 1st, he participated in the Sundown Marathon in Singapore and ran 42km while raising funds for Chi Heng Foundation.

"June 1st Theme Activities" — Chi Heng Foundation holds "Mini Summer Camps" in Zhengzhou, Zhumadian and Zhoukou

On June 1st and 2nd, Chi Heng's project team in Zhumadian organized a mini summer camp for 57 sponsored students. The camp gave the students an experience of the world outside the countryside. They toured Erlang Mountain, went bamboo rafting and watched performances featuring ethnic minority customs. Chi Heng prepared a simple and pleasant dinner and invited new and old friends from partner enterprises, schools, volunteer organizations and local mainstream media. The kids had a good time.

From June 1st to 3rd, Chi Heng's project team in Zhoukou held the "Love and Participation" activity for 45 sponsored students. In the "Sun and Dreams" drawing section, the kids painted their aspirations for the future. They enjoyed outdoor activities such as visiting the zoo and Taihao Tomb, rowing on the Dragon Lake, and watching a 3D movie. Scholarships were awarded to 22 students with exceptional qualities and excellent academic performance. Throughout the activity, the students met new friends and established sincere friendships.

On June 1st and 2nd, Chi Heng's project team in Zhengzhou organized a two-day celebration for 30 sponsored children. They took the kids to visit the SIAS International College of Zhengzhou University, Zhengzhou Aquarium and Henan Provincial Museum. The kids all received lovely gifts after the activities, bringing broad smiles.

Social Organization Deployment Conference by Beijing Youth League Committee

On June 21st, Chi Heng attended the "2nd Quarterly Youth League Social Organization Work Meeting 2013: Government Purchase of Social Services" held by Beijing Youth League Committee. The meeting had 100 participants who were in charge of social organizations from various industries in Beijing. The Committee had a high regard for the cycling event for charity held at the Bird's Nest on May 25th and promised to provide funding. Chi Heng's university seminar series also generated a positive response from the Committee and was incorporated into the second purchase program of social services by social organizations.

Chi Heng Foundation Invited to Charity Exchange Forum

In the evening on June 8th, the Beijing office of Chi Heng Foundation was invited to attend the charity meeting organized by Beijing Community Dinner. The Chi Heng team delivered a keynote speech on "China AIDS Walk" and exchanged ideas with participants from overseas. The team introduced the AIDS orphan sponsorship program and social enterprise project, and received donations from the guests.

Chi Heng Holds Symposium for Societies in Beijing

In the evening on June 7th, the Beijing office of Chi Heng Foundation held a symposium for students from youth societies from the Red Cross of Tsinghua University, Red Cross of Beijing Sport University, Communication University of China, Beijing Normal University, Capital Normal University and University of International Business and Economics. The office had lively discussions with the students on the speeches it gave in universities and the activities it organized, including the "Dialogue with the Youth" seminar, the university exhibition tour of drawings by AIDS orphans and the "Love and Smile" campaign. The students actively engaged and offered ideas on Chi Heng's programs in universities for the second half of the year.

NGO and Charity Networking Day in Beijing

On June 1st, Chi Heng Foundation was invited to participate in the NGO and Charity Networking Day organized by BOOKWORM. Quite a number of well-known NGOs also attended. Chi Heng's booth attracted a great number of people interested in charity and the Chi Heng staff explained Chi Heng's work in details. Many were touched when they learnt that Chi Heng had cumulatively sponsored 15,000 students to go to school, and 16 individuals signed up to be volunteers.

Chi Heng Volontourism participated in Harvard's SEED on Citizenship and Social Innovation

Between June 27th and July 4th 2013, representative of the Chi Heng Volontourism program participated in Harvard SEED on Citizenship and Social Innovation (SEED). SEED aims to promote civil awareness and social responsibilities among Chinese young people in and outside China. SEED also inspires social creativity in wide areas and helps to promote development of Chinese society. As one of the nine SEED project groups, Chi Heng Volontourism team presented at MIT on July 4th 2013. The team is also organizing a tailor-made Volontourism trip for SEED members to offer an opportunity to learn from Chinese NGOs and to volunteer in the AIDS impacted regions.

Prayer Column

"AIDS-impacted children are in need of more love and care. They shall not be deprived of education and lose faith in their future". — Hundun, a participant of the cycling activity on Saturday May 25th, is suffering from leukemia. Let's wish for Hundun's early recovery and that he will be able to continue enjoying cycling trips.

Chi Heng Volontourism program has released its 3rd quarter calendar to welcome many participants in the coming months!
