

"Soundbeat '60s & '70s" - Spreading love through music from the '60s & '70s era

On 6th June, an audience and celebrities totalling more than 800 attended the "Soundbeat '60s & '70s 2014", a charity concert held by Chi Heng Hong Kong, at the Lyric Theatre, Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts to listen to golden oldies from those years. Dr. York Chow, Chairperson of the Hong Kong Equal Opportunities Commission, was the officiating guest of honour, while Mr. Danny Summer and Mr. Joey Tang, artists renowned for their involvement in band music in Hong Kong, were guest performers. Mr. Patrick Dunn, a well known actor and TV program host in Hong Kong, was MC of the concert, and performed as well. With over twenty popular and celebrated artists and musicians including Albert Cheung (Big AL) and others, the concert brought back memories of the 60s and 70s and raised funds to support the education of AIDS-impacted children in China.

Chi Heng Charity Umbrella Redemption Campaign

On 12th June, the "Charity Umbrella Redemption Campaign" sponsored by Miramar Group was lunched at their shopping malls in Tsimshatsui, Hong Kong. Visitors to the malls who donated HK$50 or above could redeem an exquisite umbrella (original price HK$128). At the same time, Miramar Group donated an additional HK$30 for each umbrella redeemed by visitors. All proceeds went to Chi Heng's AIDS orphans education sponsorship program. This campaign is supported by celebrated producer and singer Mr. Hanjin Tan who selected the drawing named "Dream" painted by AIDS orphans to be printed on the umbrellas.
