

Charity Auction Benefits Chi Hen

On October 28th, AT&T celebrated the opening of its new office in Hong Kong. As they prepared for the relocation, a charity auction of office furniture was held among the staff and raised over $17,000 for Chi Heng. The donation was presented by Mr. Greg Wieboldt, Senior VP Global Client Group, to Chi Heng during the office opening ceremony. AT&T has been supporting Chi Heng since 2009 through donations, charity sales and volunteering. Chi Heng is very grateful to the AT&T team.

Chi Heng Charity Dinner 2014 - Midnight Sparks

Chi Heng Goodwill Ambassador Mrs. Cathy Lee and Chairperson Mr. Chung To co-hosted a Chi Heng Charity Dinner with the theme "Midnight Sparks" on October 11th at The Mira Hong Kong. The Ball was enthusiastically supported by principal sponsors Emperor Watch & Jewellery, The Mira Hong Kong, Prada, and many other corporate and individual supporters.

The Mira Ballroom was transformed into a starry night that evening. Over 300 guests generously supported the raffle sale and donation drive. Raffle tickets were specially designed as heart-shaped wishes hung on a stunning Wishing Tree. Every purchase of a raffle ticket helped make a child's dream come true.

2 students sponsored by Chi Heng were present in the evening. They shared their stories on stage which touched the hearts of the guests. A sparkling jewelry show was sponsored by Emperor Watch & Jewellery and the evening concluded with an amazing magic performance by renowned Hong Kong magician, Mr. Louis Yan.

Mrs. Lee and Mr. To thanked all the patrons and supporters for their generosity and efforts in helping thousands of AIDS-impacted children in China gain educational opportunities.

The Chi Heng-Amazon Run

After several months' preparation, Amazon China and Chi Heng Beijing successfully held a running event on October 18th at Changping Shisanling, Beijing. More than two hundred Amazon employees participated in the event, with the youngest runner being an elementary school student. Though not professional runners, all participants were able to complete the 5km or 13km race. Chi Heng awarded a certificate for every runner to encourage their involvement. Many runners said they treasured this meaningful opportunity to get involved in charitable causes while doing some exercise. They also gave their good wishes to the AIDS-infected children sponsored by Chi Heng.

VMware Charity Day: the Charity Hikers

On September 13th, 30 VMware workers took part in the company's Charity Day, hiking up the Jiugoku Peak in Huairou District. Each participant was responsible for assisting one Chi Heng-sponsored student. The event combined a sporty spirit with love and care and raised funds which could support 30 elementary school students for a year.

Charity Art Exhibition: Inside Out

From September 27th to October 12th, Blue Bridge International Education hosted "Inside Out", an art exhibition at Lidu Center. Chi Heng Foundation was invited to showcase paintings of the AIDS-infected children it sponsors. The exhibition was received enthusiastically by children and their parents, and was a great opportunity to raise social awareness to charitable causes.

Chi Heng Site Visits

From October 2nd to 6th, Chi Heng organized the "Ningxia Ecological Trip", a site visit featuring "green" travel, in collaboration with environmental groups. The well-designed activities aimed to help travelers gain a new perspective about travel and bring positive effects to the community.

On October 10th, Chi Heng Site Visit group coordinated a concert with the South African dancing crew "KYP" and "Echo Arts Live". The audience really enjoyed the passionate music and performance. Donations received from the performance would cover the expenses of KYP's site visit to AIDS-infected children in Henan from October 24-26th, during which they taught the children music and shared their experience.

From October 23rd-26th, 11 members from the "KYP" dancing group and American instructor Mindy from "Echo Arts Alive", taught and performed in four elementary schools in Henan. The distinct African dances attracted the rural students and opened up a new world to them. The South African artists also thought it was a unique experience.

2014 Shenzhen Charity Fair

During the 2014 Shenzhen Charity Fair, Mr. Chung To was interviewed by "Voice of China" Radio (FM 87.8, FM 104.9, AM1215) to discuss Chi Heng's work focusing on AIDS-infected children. It was the second time Chi Heng participated in the Shenzhen Charity Fair. The Fair provided an opportunity for Chi Heng to introduce itself to more people and call for attention to the situation of AIDS-infected children.

Business Traveller Asia Pacific Annual Awards Ceremony

On September 26th, our Chairman Mr. Chung To was invited to speak about the service of Chi Heng at the "Business Traveller Asia Pacific Awards" Ceremony at the Conrad Hong Kong Hotel. On behalf of Chi Heng, Mr To presented a souvenir to Mr. Hayden Turner, TV host of National Geographic Channel and private African safari owner, thanking him for his support of the event. In addition, Business Traveller supported Chi Heng's eco-bag workshop by purchasing tailor-made eco-bags as welcome gifts for the guests. Chi Heng volunteers also helped manage a booth selling Chi Heng's eco-bags and handmade brooches made by women impacted by HIV in rural China.

"Tatler" Awards Ceremony

On October 24th, Mr. Chung To attended the 2014 Shanghai "Tatler Magazine" Awards Ceremony and was awarded "Man of Charity" of the year. The award honors Chi Heng's creative and down-to-earth attitude. It also recognizes Chi Heng's contribution in providing education and care for AIDS-infected children and in raising social awareness to minority groups.

The Starwood & Chi Heng Charity Run

On October 12th, "Realizing the Education Dreams of 100 AIDS-Infected Children", an event sponsored by Le Meridien Hotel Zhengzhou, Aloft Zhengdong Hotels, Aloft Zhengzhou Shang Jie, and Starwood Zhengzhou Hotel, was held in Le Meridien Hotel Zhengzhou. The event consisted of three parts: Charity Run, Charity Auction, and Charity sale. Many people participated with enthusiasm, and the event raised funds that could sponsor 258 starfishes' tuition for a year. It was the first collaboration of Chi Heng and Le Meridien, and the event was a great success. It drew attention from multiple parties, which established the foundation for future cooperation.

Chi Heng Central China Home Visits

Chi Heng Central China paid home visits to 150 students in September and October, as the new semester started. These home visits helped the Chi Heng staff members learn about the financial situation and mental condition of the students who applied for funding. The program also informed us about the future plans of these students, as well as encouraging them to overcome upcoming obstacles. Home visits facilitate the mutual understanding between Chi Heng and the sponsored families and enabled us to fulfill their most urgent needs.

Chung To's Talk to MBA Students at TSING Hua University

On September 11th, Mr. Chung To was invited to give a speech on "the New Model Integrating Social Responsibility and Business" for 60 new Tsing Hua MBA students. Using Chi Heng's Eco-Bag social enterprise as an example, Mr. To shared his vision behind the establishment of the enterprise, and had in-depth discussions with the students. It was the second year Mr. To gave a speech to first year students of Qinghua's MBA program on the idea of charity work.

Speech at Nanyang Normal University

On October 15th, Mr. Chung To was invited to Nanyang Normal University and addressed on "Community Service and Charity". He shared his own experience and called for attention to charitable causes. "Get involved in charity to help others, you will find you are actually helping yourself as well," said To. His speech inspired the youth to ponder on serving their communities.

Undergrad Interviews and Welcome Party

On October 12th, Chi Heng Southwestern office organized a themed discussion for high school students. The event, through interactive activities, taught the sponsored students how to blend into the warm "new family". They watched a very inspiring movie and shared their own stories with other students. Some expressed their hope to learn from the courageous characters in the movie in facing difficulties in life.

Chi Heng VolunONLINE Video Classroom

In October, Chi Heng VolunOnline expanded with four new sites and hosted nine online sessions in Yunnan, Henan, and Anhui. The classes taught included English, handicraft, and scientific experiments. VolunONLINE has established partnership with Stepping Stone China. Seven well-trained volunteers from Stepping Stone joined our online teaching, which was significant for the rising quality of the English courses. AMD, VMware, and NYU were also involved in this program. Thanks to the five teachers from these organizations as well!

Southwestern China: "Dream and Growth" Discussion

On October 12th, Chi Heng Southwestern office organized a themed discussion for high school students. The event, through interactive activities, taught the sponsored students how to blend into the warm "new family". They watched a very inspiring movie and shared their own stories with other students. Some expressed their hope to learn from the courageous characters in the movie in facing difficulties in life.

Chief Editor: Mary

Contact Us:

Beijing: 010-65542018 beijing@chiheng.org

Shanghai: 021-63804427 shanghai@chiheng.org

Hongkong: 00852-25170564 info@chihengfoundation.com

Microblog: 智行基金会 (Sina/Tencent/Sohu)