

Wisdom and Kindness Charity Cantonese Opera Gala

On January 1st, New Year's Day, a Charity Cantonese Opera Gala named Wisdom and Kindness was held by Chi Heng Foundation at the Hong Kong Sunbeam theatre. We were honored to invite Dr. John Chan, the former senior official of Hong Kong government and Mr. Paul S. W. Leung as the guests of honor, and Ms. Wong Chiu Kwan, a well-known Cantonese Opera artist and renowned actor as the artistic director.

This charity show was supported by 14 renowned actors and fans, performing the popular excerpts of opera highlights for the large audience. All money raised will be donated to the AIDS orphans projects of Chi Heng Foundation.

Chi Heng College Students Participating in the Hong Kong Marathon

Five Chi Heng students from Henan and Yunnan provinces came to Hong Kong for the Standard Chartered Hong Kong Marathon 10km run. This year, the same number of Chi Heng supporters were also sponsored, accompanying the students to the race. Ms. Helen Tam, a famous Hong Kong actress also presented in the event, encouraging the students to finish the race.

During the 4 days in Hong Kong, the students also visited some Chi Heng's corporate partners, including Hugo Boss's flagship store, the Hong Kong office of Central China Real Estate and a Pizza Express branch, having meal and sharing their feelings with the entrepreneurs.

Besides, they also went to Lamma Island Power Station, played in the beach of Repulse Bay, and toured Hong Kong University campus, accompanied by the student delegates of "Youth Arch Foundation" and "Beyond the Pivot", spending a meaningful weekend together.

ZOL Company Online Donation Activity

From the middle of January, cooperating with Chi Heng, ZOL launched an online donation activity to collect electric products for AIDS-impacted children in southwest China, helping them get to know more about the outside world through the modern technology.

We sincerely welcome to your donations. Let's warm the people in need with the generosity of the ZOL donations.

Chi Heng Zhengzhou Office Winter Camp

From October 31st to January 3rd, Chi Heng Zhengzhou office organized a winter camp for primary and secondary school students, aimed at "discovering a better self".

There were 26 students participating in the activity accompanied by Mr. Chung To, four Canadian journalists and four local and American volunteers. This winter camp gave them a chance to open their minds and strengthen their confidence. This gave the students an opportunity to make new friends and reinforced the idea that helping others can be extended exponentially, "one helps 3 and 3 help 9", enhancing the understanding of the ultimate goal of Chi Heng.

The 4th China Charity Festival

On January 22nd, the 4th China Charity Festival launched and held by the China Charity Festival committee was solemnly opened in Beijing. Chi Heng Foundation received the 2014 Best Charity Organization Award for the difference it made to the AIDS orphans - a huge encouragement to Chi Heng Foundation. We will make persistent efforts to help more AIDS-impacted children continue their study.

Chi Heng annual meeting 2014/15

From January 18th to 25th, all the Chi Heng staffs from the 10 offices in China met in Guangzhou for the 2015 annual meeting. The theme of the meeting was "Professional Co-operation, Inheritance of Creativity". In 2015, the Chi Heng team will look to continually upgrade the professionalism of the people, management, and events, further promote team work internally and with outside partners, while seeking to have new breakthroughs with creativity in time, in order to better help the needy.

Interview of prospective Chi Heng-Sponsored College and Vocational - technical school students from Central China

On January 10th, at the Chi Heng Zhengzhou office, Mr. Chung To interviewed 24 vocational - technical school students who had applied for Chi Heng stipends. This not only strengthened ties among the students, promoting interaction and friendship, but also promoted the idea that helping others can be extended exponentially (1 helps 3 & 3 help 9), enhancing the understanding of the ultimate goal of Chi Heng.

From February 1st to 2nd, Mr. Chung To interviewed 13 college students from Nanyang who had applied to Chi Heng for the first time. All of the college students sponsored by Chi Heng must be interviewed by Mr. Chung To before they can get donations so that we can check the students' first-hand information, and help them effectively.

Village visit in Nanyang

From January 30th to February 2nd, 15 volunteers from Hong Kong, accompanied by Mr. Chung To came to Nanyang, Henan province for a three-day home visit. They crossed 3 counties and visited 24 families, delivering winter material assistance to the door of each needy beneficiary household, benefiting more than 32 children. Ms. Chen, a journalist from Nanyang Daily carried a detailed report regarding this trip.

In the evening on February 1st, 4 leaders from Nanyang Civil Affairs Bureau and Chi Heng students studying in Nanyang participated in a dinner party, spending a warm and unforgettable night together.

"Passion and Love: New Year Charity Dinner 2015"

On January 25th, in celebration of the New Year, Chi Heng HK office conducted a charity dinner "Passion and Love: New Year Charity Dinner 2015" for our supporters. Five Chi Heng-sponsored college students also attended the event after running in the Standard Chartered Hong Kong Marathon, sharing their life stories with the guests and learning considerable life experience from them.

Furthermore, a magic team from Baptist Oi Kwan Social Service performed a wonderful magic programs, taking the guests into the world of magic. The 5 Chi Heng students demonstrated talents and expressed appreciation to the supporters with beautiful songs and dances, triggering loud cheers and warm applause from the guests. Besides the brilliant programs, the charity lucky draw and the auction also led the gala to the prolonged climax. All of the attendees spent a wonderful night together.

During the banquet, Ms. Linda Wong, a pop singer and Chi Heng supporter, paid a special visit to the students in order to provide her sincere inspiration to them.

Chi Heng College Students Entrepreneurship Training

From January 26th to 31st, the 12th session of entrepreneurship training was jointly held by Chi Heng and Bright China Foundation in Zhengzhou. 4 trainers and 35 Chi Heng students joined this lesson, which was not only an opportunity for the students to study but also a chance to learn more about Chi Heng. Through this platform a profound friendship was also established among the students.

Therefore, the training session not only created a chance for the students to promote mutual communication, but also set up a bridge to strengthen the ties between Chi Heng and its sponsored students, so that Chi Heng's ideas for public benefits can be better promoted.

Scope International (China) Co., Ltd. Home Visits

From January 29th to 30th, 4 volunteers from Scope International (China) Co., Ltd. and 2 staff from Chi Heng Foundation's Beijing office came to central China together. They took supplies and food to 196 local AIDS-impacted families, visiting a few families and encouraging the little starfishes of Chi Heng to study well.

Meanwhile, the volunteers were thrilled to meet the children they spent a full day with at the 2014 Beijing summer camp. They all felt quite excited when they met again.

Chi Heng Foundation Public Communication

On January 6th, at the beginning of the new year, Mr. Chung To was invited to Zhengzhou Huanghe Science and Technology College to deliver a public speech for 1000 students. He shared his 17 years of experience of charity work and the AIDS orphans projects conducted by Chi Heng, and encouraged the young students to care more about the under-privileged members of our society. He sincerely appealed to the youth to take an active part in the charity activities to improve the situation.

The life of the future SYB Teachers in Aurillac (France)

Zhang Shuai and Jin Huizi are graduates from the 4th and 5th batch of SYB currently living an extraordinary adventure. They have been selected to become the future SYB bakery and pastry teachers! To learn this beautiful job, they left for France in June 2014.

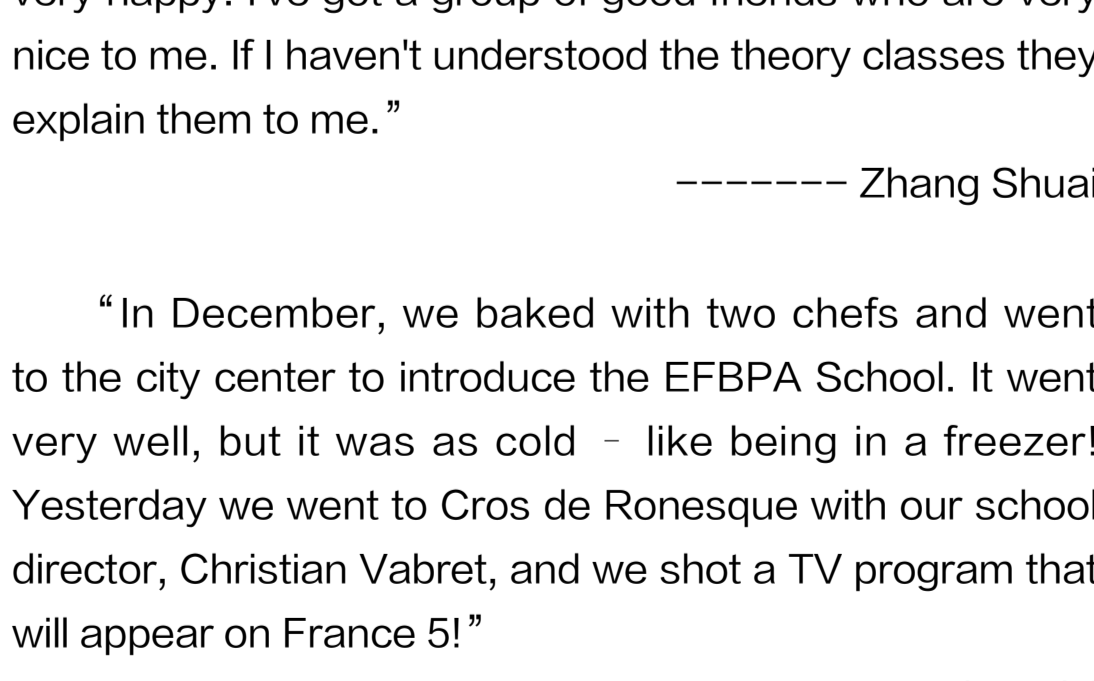

"Everything is going well here, even though there are a few theory classes that are really too difficult for me. The teacher says that I don't understand anything! But I'm very happy. I've got a group of good friends who are very nice to me. If I haven't understood the theory classes they explain them to me."

----- Zhang Shuai

"In December, we baked with two chefs and went to the city center to introduce the EFBPA School. It went very well, but it was as cold - like being in a freezer! Yesterday we went to Cros de Ronesque with our school director, Christian Vabret, and we shot a TV program that will appear on France 5!"
