

Business Traveller Asia Pacific Annual Awards

On September 9th, our Chairperson Mr. Chung To was invited to share the latest developments of Chi Heng at the "Business Traveller Asia Pacific Award Luncheon" at the Conrad Hong Kong Hotel. Volunteers set up charity sale counter where funds were raised and Chi Heng's work was promoted to hundreds of guests. We are grateful for the long-term support of Business Traveller Asia-Pacific over the past ten years of our work in China for the AIDS orphans.

"Exploration" - HUGO BOSS x Chi Heng Foundation Charity Art Exhibition

"Exploration" - HUGO BOSS x Chi Heng Foundation Charity Art Exhibition, made possible by the generous support of Hugo Boss, was kicked off by an opening cocktail event on September 10th. The exhibition lasted till October 11th at the BOSS Store in Central Building, Hong Kong. The exhibition showcased a collection of paintings by children impacted by AIDS in China. Through making pledge to these drawings, supporters could raise funds for the children. Many Chi Heng supporters and special guests attended the cocktail event, including Ms. Amanda Lui, Ms. Anina Ho and Mrs. Nicola Cheung. Mr. Julio Acconci, a member of a Hong Kong pop band Soler, also attended the opening. Part of the sales proceeds from the kick-off day was donated to Chi Heng to support our work in China.

IR Ingersoll Rand Charity Drawing Competition held in Shanghai

On September 25th, "Accompanying Love" - AIDS orphan care project was launched by Ingersoll Rand and Chi Heng. A drawing competition with the theme "My Dream" was carried out for the kids of IR Ingersoll Rand team to join. An award ceremony was held in Shanghai in appreciation of those outstanding drawings. The funds raised from this event could help 81 AIDS orphans to complete 1-year of primary study.

Volunteer Visit in Zhoukou

From 18th to 20th September, 13 volunteers from Hong Kong and Canada visited Zhoukou, Henen province to celebrate the Mid Autumn Festival with 30 Chi Heng sponsored students. Presents and encouragement were given to these kids. Volunteers were sympathetic to what the kids had suffered and determined to make more appealsto peoples to care about the education of AIDS orphans.

Chi Heng x College Charity Activity

On September 18th, Chi Heng and 20 representative students from more than 10 universities in Beijing jointly organized the "Chi Heng x College Charity Activities" sharing conference. Chi Heng is planning to have more collaboration with colleges to spread the charity spirit.

Chi Heng's Volun-Online

To give company and supplementary education to AIDS orphans in remote areas of China, Chi Heng's Volun-Online project has already established 6 classrooms in the past 2 years. This year, VMware in Beijing joined and formed a volunteer teaching group. Chi Heng had a briefing session with the team on 16th September. They all look forward to the online classes that will be kicked off in mid October.

Charity Sale in the Shanghai Alley

On September 19th, Chi Heng Shanghai held a charity sale in the Jiashan market at Shanghai traditional alley. Products of Chi Oi Social Enterprise were sold for fund raising to support Chi Heng. We also got the opportunity interviewed by STV.

Home Visit in Central & South-western China

In September, the home visit team in Zhumadian visited 93 families of sponsored students in 14 counties. They also collected updated information about the families. This first hand information is vital for us to review the urgent needs of the children. We also distributed milk powder to those in need, and taught them basic knowledge in medication.

At the same time, the team in Lincang visited 114 families in 3 project areas. They celebrated the festival with the families and sent milk powder to them. 30 children, 18 parents, and 3 members from CDC spent the mid-autumn festival together. Through learning the history of mid-autumn festival, children gained more knowledge about Chinese traditional festivals. This parent-child interactive activity helped the children feel happy and warm.

Charity Walk for AIDS Awareness in Beijing

On September 12th, more than 200 supporters joined the 4th "Charity Walk for AIDS Awareness" at the Chengde Jinshangling Greatwall in Beijing. Everyone wore the T-shirt printed with "We Have Love" pattern that was drawn by our AIDS orphans, to spread words and hope to raise awareness on the children affected by AIDS.

The 8th graduation of Shanghai Young Baker

In September, 31 students from 8 different provinces began their training from Shanghai Young Baker (SYB). All students were recommended by Chi Heng and 8 other co-operating organizations to get into SYB to receive formal baking training. Though they all have different backgrounds, they have a same goal --- to become a professional baker. SYB is dedicated to help them to realize their dreams.
