

Chi Heng University Students Participating in the Hong Kong Marathon

Six Chi Heng sponsored university students came to Hong Kong for the Standard Chartered Hong Kong Marathon 10km run. Nine Chi Heng supporters were also invited to accompany the students to finish the race, despite the bad weather on the day. During the 4 days in Hong Kong, the students visited some Chi Heng corporate partners, including Hugo Boss's flagship store and a Pizza Express outlet, having a meal and sharing their feelings with the corporate representatives. They also attended a tea sharing with local students from Youth Arch Foundation and Hong Kong Outstanding Students' Association, and guest speakers included Ms. Joan Xia, Mr. Leong Cheung and Mr. Willy Law. The guests' sharings inspired and encouraged many students.

Casablanca Night Charity Dinner and Dance Party

Organized by Chi Heng Hong Kong, the charity dinner and dance party 'Casablanca Night' was concluded successfully on 17th January 2016. Thanks to the strong support given by some veteran artists/musicians and over 400 guests, a considerable amount of funds was raised to support our work. 17th January was chosen to coincide with the Standard Chartered Bank HK Marathon, so our supporters had the chance of meeting 6 Chi Heng sponsored university students who ran in the SCB HK Marathon the same morning and joined the dinner to share with guests their uplifting stories. Music and dancing of a classical theme of Casablanca brought all guests a memorable night filled with love and warmth.

Volunteer visit of Standard Chartered Tianjin Branch in Fuyang

On 10th January, five representatives from Standard Chartered Tianjin branch visited the families sponsored by Chi Heng in Fuyang. Started last year, it is their second village visit. This year, they distributed food and winter materials to 200 underprivileged families and visited Chi Heng Caring Home, sending love and warmth to the AIDS impacted children and their families.

Era's Paragon Awards

The eleventh 'Era's Paragon Public Figures' awarding ceremony was held on 24th January in Beijing. Mr. Chung To was awarded as one of China's top ten public figures with outstanding contributions. Mr. To introduced Chi Heng's work in his speech to raise public awareness of AIDS orphans in China.

Chi Heng Beijing Charity Sale and Art Exhibition

From 19th to 23rd January, Chi Heng Beijing held a charity sale during the Spring Festival Temple Fair with support of Roundabout, a Shunyi based charity store. At the same time, an exhibition of drawings by AIDS orphans was also held in Beijing Dulwich International School for a week to promote the works of Chi Heng and raise public awareness of AIDS orphans.

Promotion

On 28th January, Chi Heng Shanghai submitted a proposal to the '2016 Shanghai Changning District Charity Cultural Projects' scheme and introduced Chi Heng and its AIDS orphans project to the judges and guests.

2015 Operation Santa Claus

2015 Operation Santa Claus had its official closing on the night of 19th January 2016 at the AIA Great European Carnival. With HK$21.3 million raised over the Christmas period, the drive jointly held by the South China Morning Post and RTHK had the most successful year since its inception 28 years ago. Chi Heng Foundation is thankful to be one of the 22 charities being chosen as the beneficiaries of 2015-2016. The grant will be used to support our distance learning project, 'Discover over Distance' for 1 year.

Chi Heng Zhengzhou took part in charity event in support of traditional festival

The 2nd annual 'Love Porridge Campaign' co-organized by over 120 non-profit organizations in Henan province was supported by over a thousand corporations and restaurants. Staff of Chi Heng Zhengzhou office and our sponsored university students in Zhengzhou took part in this campaign. They distributed free porridge to the passers-by and passengers in the Zhengzhou Railway Station to show their love and care to the community.

Volunteering visit

From 22nd to 24th January, nineteen volunteers from Singapore, Canada, Shanghai and Hong Kong went to Henan rural areas for a two-day visit. They visited some famous attractions with the children and gave out New Year's gifts to encourage them to work hard on their studies. The children also prepared a talent show to thank the volunteers. The volunteers visited 20 families affected by AIDS and brought warmth to them by giving out blankets and clothes.

2016 The Fifth Chi Heng College Training

From 25th to 27th January, Chi Heng Zhengzhou held the fifth Chi Heng College training. There were 65 students from Henan, Anhui and Shandong provinces, and over 50 Chi Heng sponsored college and university students joined. The training activities were designed to provide an insight of future career path to the students, and to stimulate them to improve themselves for a clearer and brighter future.

Baking activity with Youdao Foundation and Nexans

Shanghai Young Bakers, Chi Heng's Social Enterprise, and Youdao Foundation co-organized a charity baking activity. Youdao Foundation is committed to improve the living conditions of foreign workers in Shanghai and their families. The families supported by Youdao Foundation joined this baking activity. This special extra-curricular activity helped enhance the communication and understanding among the family members.
