Volunteers Visit in Fuyang

With the Chinese New Year approaching, 12 HK volunteers planned and organized a trip in Fuyang from 6th to 10th January to show their love and care to our sponsored students and their family. During the trip, they visited local farmers' home and brought our sponsored students to visit local farmers' home and brought our sponsored students to visit the downtown. May the joy and happiness be with them! ■

Chi Heng U Students Joined 10KM Race & Spring Charity Dinner

6 university students sponsored by Chi Heng had finished the 10KM race of SCB HK Marathon on 12th February. They also spent an eventful and meaningful weekend in Hong Kong with our volunteers and supporters. They took their very first ferry ride, had dim sum lunch, enjoyed the night view at the Peak and visited corporations. They also met with many Chi Heng supporters in our Spring Charity Dinner after they finished the race. During the dinner, they performed a sign language dance to show their appreciation to our supporters. ■

Student Activity

Meetings were held on January 15th to 16th and 19th to 20th by Zhengzhou office for university students gathering. In total, 67 sponsored students participated in the activity. Through lectures and a variety of interactive activities, we hoped to promote Chi Heng's belief that "If one helps three, then three help nine." Through this guiding principle, More families in need will get help.

Our office in Nanning held an activity for high school vocational students. In total, 15 students as well as several parents receiving aid all participated. Through allowing students to have a face-to-face meeting, we hoped to deepen our understanding of the students' needs, while encouraging them to continue to study diligently. Moreover, the Nanning office communicates and cooperates with the CDC as well as various hospitals throughout the region, in order to allow more students in need of assistance to have access to Chi Heng's education subsidy services.

From January 31st to February 2nd, in conjunction with the offices in Zhoukou, Zhengzhou, Zhumadian, and Shangcai, our Zhengzhou office held a four-day event for college students of the Luohe Spring Festival Association. In total, 66 students heralding from different regions paid a visit to Mr. Du Cong, eating dinner and chatting with him throughout the evening. The students shared recent developments in their lives as well as their hopes for the future. Though it was a simple meal, it warmed the heart of each and every student. ■

Chi Heng Academy

Besides subsidizing tuition costs, Chi Heng also concerns the physical and mental development of our students. To that end, Chi Heng Academy is established to provide special training for sponsored students, such as career and leadership guidance, communication skills enhancement and other assorted training.

In 2017, the Chi Heng Academy successfully completed its seventh training course in the city of Zhengzhou. It was held from January 17th to the 19th. In total, 157 college students participated in the program. The goal of the course was to build the students' self-confidence while deepening their understanding of traditional Chinese culture in order to help them have a better future. ■

Visiting Events

From March 25th to the 29th, volunteers from Canada, Hong Kong, and Shanghai arrived at Shanxi, Jinnan to visit families receiving aid. In total, the delegation visited 15 families and 17 different students receiving subsidies. During the visits, food were provided to the families, infected students were provided new bags and cups, and the elderly were provided with insulated winter clothing. At the same time, we listened to their stories and psychological state and were thereby able to offer some simple spiritual guidance. ■

Material Donations

With the nearing of the Spring Festival, in January and February, Chi Heng donated necessary goods and materials to subsidized families. These materials included cooking ingredients, food, thermal supplies, etc. The purpose of these donations was to allow these families to have a warm, cozy Spring Festival.

Additionally, from January 9th to the 19th, Chi Heng also provided material donations to poverty-stricken mainland families, offering winter goods and Spring Festival well-wishes. ■

Marathon

On March 26, the Zhengzhou office held the Zhengkai Marathon. In total, 18 sponsored students participated in the race. After the run, the group went to a nearby park, where the students shared what they learned during the race and played games together, strengthening the bonds among them while personally experiencing the warmth and happiness offered by Chi Heng. ■

Other Events

On February 14th, during Valentine's Day, New York University Shanghai hosted a school-wide "2017 Spring Service Fair" event for both students and teachers. Many philanthropic organizations such as Chi Heng participated in the event.

On February 8th, targeting SMG employees, Chi Heng carried out public service visits, while also holding a conference on video-classrooms and other specific, similar programs.

In order to express gratitude for the many years of support from its domestic volunteers, the Zhengzhou office specially organized a fellowship activity in Bi Sha Gang Park. In total, 22 volunteers participated, with everyone working together to make sushi, studied photography, chitchat, and took pictures together. Finally, Chi Heng gifted a gratitude card to each volunteer, with the hopes that in the future, Chi Heng and its volunteers can cooperate even better, working hard for the cause of charity. ■
